

School Year/School Calendar/Instruction Time

Prior to the end of the school year, the Board must determine the length of time during which district schools must be in session during the next school year. The number of hours/days of planned teacher-student instruction and of teacher-student contact must be consistent with the Board's definition of "actively engaged in the educational process," must meet or exceed the requirements of state law, and must include a sufficient number of days to allow the superintendent flexibility in preparing a calendar that supports the district's educational objectives.

The Board defines "actively engaged in the educational process" as time when students are working toward achieving educational objectives under the supervision of a licensed teacher, including:

- Classroom instruction time
- Individual student work time while at school, including study hall and library research
- School-related field trips
- Independent study insofar as such study is allowed under district policy
- Assemblies
- Recess time
- Passing periods between classes
- Response to Intervention time

For the 2022-2023 school year, the definition of "actively engaged in the educational process" includes all of the above and temporary remote learning as a result of COVID-19 health concerns for students provided under the supervision of a certificated or licensed teacher. "Supervision of a certificated or licensed teacher" means a certificated or licensed educator, including teachers, counselors, paraprofessionals, or other certificated or licensed staff as assigned.

Synchronous and asynchronous teacher-pupil instruction and contact time may occur during remote learning and may include the use of: existing district online school or program, services provided with Colorado Digital, assigned and prepared work packets, video conferencing, pre-recorded classes, or other method(s) utilized by the district. Teacher-pupil instruction and contact time may be tracked and counted for attendance purposes occur in the following ways:

1. Presence during in-person instruction;
2. Assignments completed at home;
3. Logging into the online learning platform;
4. Signing an online form attesting to work completed at home;
5. Student demonstration of learning;
6. Responding to teacher emails or communication.

Attendance will be recorded at least once daily for days when instructional hours are provided, meaning a student is "actively engaged in the educational process.

"Actively engaged in the educational process" shall not include:

- Lunch
- Time students spend before school waiting for classes to begin and time after the last class of the day, including waiting for the bus

Supervision by a licensed teacher must not require that the teacher be in the student's physical presence at all times, but that the teacher is exercising direction and control over the nature of the student's activities.

The district will ensure that all students who are participating in remote learning will receive equitable instruction and services. Further, the district will ensure that, within the constraints of COVID-19, equitable and appropriate instruction will continue to be offered to those students requiring accommodations.

The district calendar for the next school year must be prepared by the superintendent and presented to the Board for approval in the spring of each year. The superintendent must consult with other districts in the area when preparing the calendar.

The Board authorizes the administration in each school building to issue a school calendar based on the district calendar and in accordance with this policy. Administrators are encouraged to examine instruction time and calendar issues in the context of supporting the district's educational objectives.

Calendars must include the dates for all staff in-service programs scheduled for the coming school year. The administration will allow public input from parents and teachers prior to scheduling the dates for staff in-service programs.

A copy of the calendar must be provided to all parents/guardians of students enrolled in district schools. Any change in the calendar except for emergency closing or other unforeseen circumstances must be preceded by adequate and timely notice of no less than 30 days.

If a school day is lost due to an emergency, the Board at its next regular meeting will ratify the administrative action in closing the school.
